

Contact: Kristine Migely, The Minneapolis Foundation
(612) 672-3877/kmigely@mplsfoundation.org

Photos available upon request

The Minneapolis Foundation Names Three New Board Members to its Board of Trustees

Minneapolis, Minn. (October 20, 2010) – The Minneapolis Foundation recently appointed Terrance Dolan, Archie Givens Jr. and Nekima Levy-Pounds to its Board of Trustees.

Terrance Dolan holds the position of vice chair of the Wealth Management & Securities Services division at U.S. Bancorp and is responsible for its wealth management division, brokerage activities, corporate and institutional trust, custody, and mutual fund services. He is also actively involved in community-based organizations, including Artspace and the Cowles Center for Dance and Performing Arts.

Archie Givens Jr. is the CEO and director of Legacy Management and Development Corporation, a managing partner of Rainbow Development Corporation, which has developed over 1,100 affordable housing units throughout Minnesota. Givens is also president of the Givens Foundation for African American Literature.

He is a board member of Western Bank, Hennepin Theater Trust, and the Guthrie Theater. He received his B.A. in History and Humanities, as well as a M.H.A. in Hospital and Healthcare Administration and a license in Nursing Home Administration from the University of Minnesota. Givens is currently president of the University of Minnesota Alumni Association.

Professor Nekima Levy-Pounds is the director of the Community Justice Project (CJP) of the University of St. Thomas Interprofessional Center for Counseling and Legal Services. She teaches and supervises law students as they use the law as a tool to advance the cause of social justice in distressed communities of color.

In addition to her work in the CJP, Levy-Pounds is an active contributor to the field of civil rights and criminal justice through her work as a consultant to local community groups and organizations, a commentator in local media, and a lecturer and presenter in national and international forums. She received her B.A. from the University of Southern California and her J.D. from the University of Illinois-College of Law.

Established in 1915, The Minneapolis Foundation is one of the oldest community foundations in the nation. It was created to help individuals accomplish their charitable goals and to work with others to strengthen the community. The Minneapolis Foundation manages more than $500 million in assets and administers more than 1,000 charitable funds created by individuals, families and businesses in Minnesota. In accordance with donors' wishes, the Foundation distributes more than $30 million in grants each year, and through an endowment distributes an additional $6 million in grants annually to serve community needs. In addition, The Minneapolis Foundation works with other community leaders to improve the quality of life in our region and serve as a catalyst for discussion and action on critical issues. For more information, visit www.MinneapolisFoundation.org.