

Mind the Gap: Quiz Answers

1. In the fall of 2013, 90% of white students starting kindergarten in Minneapolis Public Schools were assessed as ready for school. What percentage of students of color were ready?
58.7%
2. In Minneapolis, more than 7 out of 10 (73.3%) of white 3rd graders met or exceeded reading standards in 2015. What percentage of 3rd graders of color did so?
24.1%
3. In Minneapolis, 71.9% of higher-income students achieved 8th grade math standards in 2015. What percentage of lower-income students met that benchmark?
27.8%
4. In 2015, just over half (50.4%) of Minneapolis students of color graduated from high school on time. What percentage of white students did so?
65.0%
5. True or false: If you're black, Hispanic, American Indian, or Asian-American, your chances of graduating from high school in four years are lower in Minnesota than in almost any other state.
True

Sources:

<http://education.state.mn.us/mde/index.html>

<http://www.mncompass.org/generation-next/overview>

<http://www.mprnews.org/story/2016/03/07/graduation-gap-sources>