Fourth Generation is an experiential giving program for early and mid-career professionals. Members work together throughout the year to learn about a critical issue, identify promising efforts to address it, donate and fundraise to support it, then make grants to local nonprofits.

Fourth Generation will kick off its seventh grantmaking cycle from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. on September 21 at Public Functionary, 1400 12th Avenue Northeast, Minneapolis, MN 55413. New and prospective members are welcome at this event, at which Fourth Generation will vote to select a community issue to address during the coming year.
