Twin Cities' hottest chefs join forces at Graze 4 Good

Fourth Generation fundraiser will support grants to address place-based disparities

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. — What do you get when you mix great food, great drinks, and a great cause? The recipe for a perfect Sunday evening. Grab your tickets now for Graze 4 Good, an intimate food adventure hosted by The Minneapolis Foundation's Fourth Generation program. This culinary-themed fundraiser features delicious food, a silent auction and the chance to rub shoulders with some of the Twin Cities most in-demand chefs — all to address community needs.

Graze 4 Good will be held at the Lumber Exchange Event Center from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. on April 14. Proceeds of this event will support grants to local organizations that address place-based disparities, Fourth Generation's 2019 grantmaking issue.

Featured chefs include:

- Jose Alarcon of Popol Vuh and Centro (2019 James Beard Semifinalist for Best New Restaurant – Popol Vuh)
- The Chef Team of All Square
- Mecca Bos and Jametta Raspberry of House of Gristle
- Mike Brown of Travail and Pig Ate My Pizza
- Dulce Monterrubio of Dulceria Bakery
- Christina Nguyen of Hola Arepa and Hai Hai (2019 James Beard Semifinalist for Best Chef: Midwest)
- Yia Vang of Union Kitchen

Graze 4 Good will begin with a VIP event from 5 p.m. to 6 p.m. where chefs will prepare gourmet bites that will only be available during this hour. Tickets are limited to ensure quality face time with each chef. VIP tickets also include admission to the general event that immediately follows. Come early for this unique experience and stay late for even more incredible food.

General Grazing runs from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m., featuring a variety of gourmet bites prepared by each chef. Two drink tickets are included.

Graze 4 Good tickets are available at <https://tinyurl.com/Graze-4-Good>.

Proceeds from this event go directly to the grantmaking of Fourth Generation, a program that engages emerging philanthropists to learn the skills of smart giving and pool their resources to make a greater impact in the community than they could alone. Every year, Fourth Generation members vote to choose a local issue, research it together and make grants to nonprofits.

In the past eight years, Fourth Generation has granted nearly $375,000 to local nonprofits that are making positive change on issues such as affordable housing, criminal justice reform, mental health, and youth homelessness. Learn more about the program at www.fourthgenfund.org.
