

RACIAL AND ECONOMIC JUSTICE GRANTS

Application Preview

This document is intended to help prospective applicants prepare to apply for a Racial and Economic Justice grant from the Minneapolis Foundation. It offers a preview of what you will see in our online portal when this grant round opens on February 1, 2022. Please note that the wording and placement of some prompts and questions may be slightly different in the online application.

The Minneapolis Foundation announces a call for proposals for efforts that advance racial and economic justice by:

- Advancing structural and systems change through policy advocacy, organizing, and movement building.
- Investing in economic systems and practices that build wealth and stabilize communities.
- Advancing narrative strategies focused on racial and economic justice.

ELIGIBILITY

Funding will be awarded to 501(c)(3)s, 501(c)(4)s, government entities, and religious institutions, or others with a fiscal agent.

Priority will be given to applications from groups that are led by Black, Indigenous, and people of color, and those engaged in efforts that are grounded in the needs of diverse Minneapolis communities and the inner-ring suburbs of Hennepin County.

We will also prioritize applications focused on investing in economic systems and practices that build wealth and stabilize communities located in the Minneapolis Cultural Districts.

BACKGROUND AND WHAT WE WILL FUND

This funding opportunity was influenced by the voices of many key stakeholders that helped to shape our Strategic Framework and pushes us to get closer to those most impacted by issues and to invest in community-driven solutions.

We are interested in funding organizations, efforts, and initiatives that have a proven track record and that can make the case for how their work advances racial and economic justice in the following areas:

- Promoting civic participation and leadership.

- Fostering belonging and inclusion.
- Actualizing access to opportunities that advance upward mobility.
- Seeing and dismantling barriers that hold inequities in place.

FUNDS AVAILABLE TO GRANT

There is approximately $4 million available to grant. The average grant range is $25,000 to $50,000. Last year, we received 276 applications and granted \$3.32 million to 84 organizations. Funding is available for general operating or project support. Funding is available for general operating or project support.

Section 6: Understanding your approach

The Minneapolis Foundation believes that these four organizing principles will contribute to stronger, more vibrant communities:

- Promoting civic participation and leadership
- Seeing and dismantling barriers that hold inequities in place
- Actualizing access to opportunities that advance upward mobility
- Fostering belonging, connection, and inclusion

We want to learn from you and understand your approach. Below, please respond to the principle(s) that are most relevant to your work. If there are principle(s) that are not applicable, please leave the response box blank.

How does your approach promote civic participation and leadership? Who will you involve in the work, and how will you continue to ensure you are leveraging their experience(s)?	Open text 1,500 characters
How does your approach foster belonging and inclusion? Whose voices are embedded, and how will you ensure this is sustained throughout the implementation of your proposed work?	Open text 1,500 characters
How does your approach increase access to opportunities that advance upward mobility? How do you know if you are making a difference?	Open text 1,500 characters
What is your approach to addressing barriers that hold inequities in place?	Open text 1,500 characters
